

Maintenance Mechanic

United Window & Door Mfg. Inc. is a premier manufacturer of vinyl window and doors. Our rapidly growing company is searching for talented people who seek the challenges and excitement of joining an industry leader.

We are currently seeking an experienced Maintenance Mechanic for the first and second shift. The Maintenance Mechanic will be an integral part of our company who will be responsible for troubleshooting, repairs and preventative maintenance service of all manufacturing equipment and facility.

Principle Duties and Responsibilities for the Maintenance Mechanic :

- Troubleshoot and repair manufacturing equipment
- Maintain and repair manufacturing equipment in a manner that minimizes downtime
- Performs duties in compliance with safety rules, standard operating procedures and good manufacturing practices.
- Reads and interprets equipment manuals and work orders to perform required maintenance and service
- Perform routine scheduled maintenance during downtime
- Keep accurate records of maintenance of production equipment
- Assist in set up, changeover and startup of production lines
- Assist in the installation of new production equipment
- Ability to troubleshoot a problem and offer a resolution while minimizing downtime

* Requirements for the Maintenance Industrial Technician :

- Bilingual Spanish / English
- Minimum of 3 years of manufacturing/industrial maintenance experience, window and door manufacturing environment a plus
- Must be a self-starter and be able to work independently or as part of a team
- Work hours for this position are for the second shift

Benefits for the Maintenance Mechanic:

- Paid Union health benefits by employer
 - Paid Holidays, Vacation and Sick time
- EOE